Graduate level. The College has earned the honour of being recognized as a quality institution by the University of Madras. From the academic year 1986-87, the College was affiliated to the Pondicherry University. From 1989-90 it has been functioning as an Under-Graduate institution only. The College has been accredited with B Grade by the NAAC. The Institute has a vision to enable self-development and empowerment of all students through modern, scientific and value-based education so as to lead a purposeful life filled with moral and spiritual values.

BGCW (Bharathidasan Government College for Women, Puducherry), in the name of Bharathidasan, the great poet from Pondicherry, established in the year 1968, is a premier institution for women in the Union Territory of Pondicherry. During the span of 55 years the college has witnessed a phenomenal growth both qualitatively and quantitatively and caters to the needs of women students by offering a wide range of Science, Arts and Commerce courses. Excellent performance in the curricular and extra-curricular activities has facilitated the institution to get the autonomous status in the academic year 2004-2005. The vision of the college is to provide value based and student centered high standard education to the women community.
