CENTRE OF CO-CURRICULAR ACTIVITIES Report 2020-21

Centre of Co-Curricular activities conducts cultural events and organizes programs in the college and also serves as a bridge between the college and other educational institutions to communicate and ensure participation of the students in various programs in and around the state.

CECA has been instrumental in building up the student's potential and in developing their personality. They participate in events and even help in organizing programs in the college. The students have given their time and talent to bring laurels to the college.

2020-21

During covid lockdown CECA conducted online program under Reading club. Reading club decided to float the idea of the online meetings of the Reading Club among students to gauge how they reacted to it. The students liked the idea immensely and agreed to participate in the club meetings. They were asked to read on their favorite topic, story, or novel and make oral presentations based on that. They were also encouraged to share their ideas in general as well. The students enthusiastically responded and made presentations on a variety of themes and subjects. These presentations were made by students from across the disciplines. The first online meeting was conducted on 05 June 2020 and since then they have become a regular

Special Lecture Series

The Reading and Writing Club under CECA organized a programme to interact with subject experts, belonging to varied disciplines. As part of this endeavour we had Dr. Rashmi. M, Assistant Professor of English, Government First Grade College, Kushalanagara, Karnataka deliver a talk on popular fiction and reading skills. She spoke on “Literary Choices When you are a Fledgling Reader: An Informal reading of J. K. Rowling’s Harry Potter”.

State-Level Competitions

1. National Reading Month Commemorations

In June and July 2021, successfully conducted State-level inter-college competitions for the students of Puducherry as part of the Reading Month celebrations (19 July 2021 to 18 August 2021). We received around 147 registrations. The competitions were conducted in three different categories, as mentioned below:

- a. Topics for Essay Writing Competition (2500 words):

Reading makes our Character.

OR

My Conversations with a book; Stories I want to re-write.

- b. Topics for Poetry Competition:

Why do I Write?

OR

What if Books Speak?

- c. Topics for Book Commentary:

Which is your favourite book and how it has influenced you?

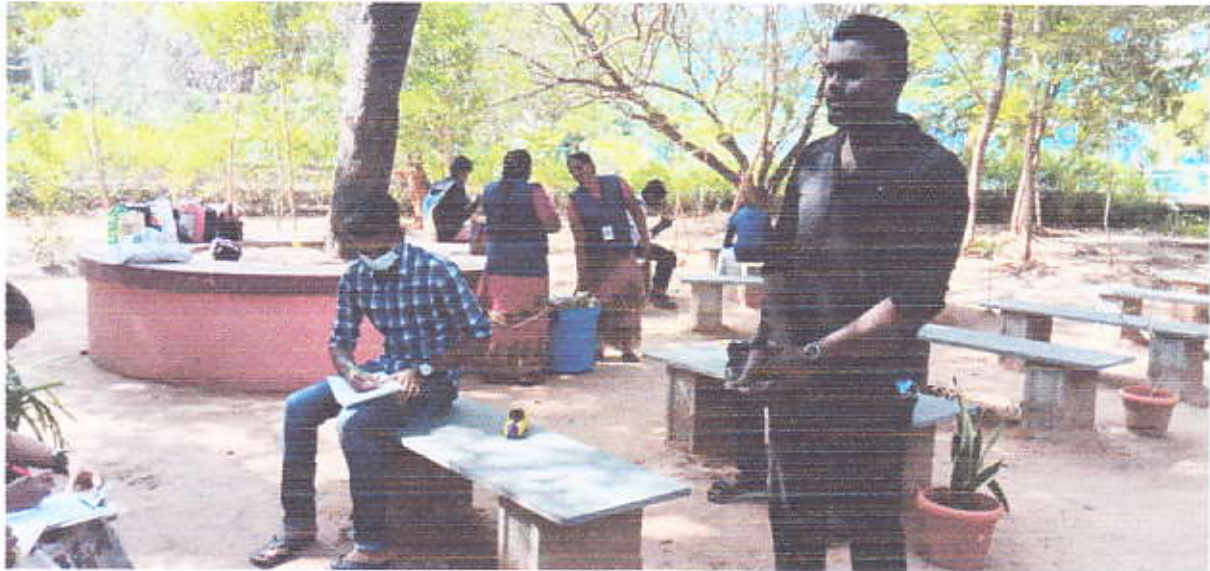

OR

Write a review of your favorite book.

- d. Logo-making competition for the students of the Reading and Writing club.

These competitions were well received by students from across colleges and the Pondicherry University. All the winners were invited to the Valedictory, wherein they shared their prize-winning entries with the members of the Club. The Principal was a special invitee to the event wherein he emphasised the significance of youth development and their contribution to the protection of environment.
