

GOVERNMENT OF PUDUCHERRY

TAGORE GOVERNMENT ARTS AND
SCIENCE COLLEGE, LAWSPET,
PUDUCHERRY

DEPARTMENT OF FRENCH

Organises

FRANCOPHONIE DAY

DATE : 29th March 2019

VENUE : CONFERENCE HALL

TIME : 2 - 4 PM

ALL ARE CORDIALLY INVITED

TAGORE GOVERNMENT ARTS & SCIENCE COLLEGE
PUDUCHERRY

DEPARTMENT OF FRENCH
REPORT ON FRANCOPHONIE CELEBRATION, 2019

The Department of French, Tagore Government Arts and Science College organised the Francophonie Celebration on 29th March 2019 from 2-4 Pm in the Conference Hall of the college.

The Francophonie Day is organised to celebrate the French language and Francophone culture as a uniting force of 300 million French speakers in the world. The highlight for the celebration was the performance of a short play in French titled “Rhinocéros” by the third year students which is also prescribed in there B.A. programme under French Drama paper. The play was directed by Ms Bhawna, Asst. Prof. in French.

The event was a success as the students got the experience of performing in French for the first time. Moreover the process of preparing a play and performing it enhanced the understanding of the play not just by the amateurs actor students but also by all the students who witnessed the play performance.

The event was attended by all the students of the department. The HOD Dr. C. Anebaressou expressed his contentment of watching students perform a play which he said, improved considerably their language skills and their confidence level. The event was hosted by Ms. Bhawna, Asst. Professor French.

Programme co-ordinator

H.O.D

Ms. Bhawna

Dr. C. Anebarassou

Photos of the play during the event :

TAGORE GOVERNMENT ARTS & SCIENCE COLLEGE
PUDUCHERRY
DEPARTMENT OF FRENCH
ONE-DAY SEMINAR ON FRENCH LITERATURE, TRANSLATION
AND FRANCOPHONE STUDIES

The Department of French, Tagore Government Arts and Science College organized a one-day seminar on French literature, Translation and Francophone Studies on 20th April 2023 in Bharathiyar Conference Hall of the college from 2-6 P.M. The chief guest for the seminar was Prof. Dr. Alain Désoulières (R.) from National Institute of Oriental Languages and cultures (INALCO), Sorbonne University, France. The seminar focussed on the contemporary research trends in the domaine of French Literature, Translation and Francophone Studies and included the following presentations by four resource persons :

1. Prof. Dr. Alain Désoulières (Retd.), ILANCO, Sorbonne Université Paris Cité, Paris, France : “Traduction, adaptation, intermédialité : le cas de Guy de Maupassant.”
2. Dr. Ritu Tyagi, Asst. Prof. of French, Department of French and Francophone Studies, Pondicherry University, Puducherry : “L’île Maurice dans l’œuvre de Ananda Devi”
3. Dr. Milind Dongre, Asst. Prof. of French Avvaiyar Govt. College for Women, Karaikal : “Être français et littérature de banlieue”
4. Dr. Alok Pathak, Asst. Prof. of French SMVEC, Madagadipet, Puducherry : “Paris imaginé par Patrick Modiano.”

The seminar was attended by approximately 60 students from departments of French TGASC, Pondicherry University and SMVEC Madagadipet. It was an enriching session where students got the opportunity to listen to experts in the domaine of French and Francophone studies from France and different institutions of Pondicherry.

The presentations of the seminar introduced the key concepts of translation and adaptation Studies, francophone literature, narratology, “banlieue literature” and memory studies which will be immensely beneficial to students in their higher studies and research in French and Francophone studies.

The HOD of the Department Dr C. Annebaressou made the welcome address, Principal Dr. Sasi Kanta Dash made the presidential address, Prof. Dr. Alain Désoulières did the inaugural address and Ms Bhawan Singhmar, Asst. Prof. Of French hosted the seminar. Akash K A, student of B.A IIIrd Year proposed the vote of thanks.

Thanking you

Ms. Bhawna Singhmar

DR. C. Anebarassou

Seminar Convener

HOD, Department of French

Photos of the One-Day Seminar :

GOVERNMENT OF PUDUCHERRY

TAGORE GOVERNMENT ARTS AND
SCIENCE COLLEGE, LAWSPET,
PUDUCHERRY

DEPARTMENT OF FRENCH
INVITATION

For

THE THEATRE WORKSHOP FOR III
YEAR STUDENTS

DATE : 1.3.2019

ALL ARE CORDIALLY INVITED

TAGORE GOVERNMENT ARTS & SCIENCE COLLEGE PUDUCHERRY

DEPARTMENT OF FRENCH REPORT ON THEATRE WORKSHOP

The Department of French, Tagore Government Arts and Science College organised a theatre workshop for the third year students on 1st March 2019 for preparing them for the Francophonie Day celebration.

In the workshop, students prepared a short play based on the twentieth century French play Rhinocéros by the famous playwright Eugène Ionesco while working on the body movements and dialogues delivery in French.

Students benefitted immensely from the workshop as they improved their French phonetics, body language through different theatre exercises.

Ms. Bhawna, Assistant Professor of French conducted the workshop. 10 students participated in the same workshop.

PHOTOS OF THE EVENT :

